

Damage About $10,000

3 Hurt as Computer Center
At Kansas Jolted by Bomb

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — An explosion damaged the computer center and injured three students on the University of Kansas campus Friday night three minutes after a telephoned warning of a bomb.

A university spokesman estimated the loss at $10,000.

John K. Seitz, night supervisor of the computer service, said a man's voice came on the main campus telephone line at 10:57 p.m. and stated:

"There's a bomb in the machine room. It's set to go off in three minutes. This is no joke."

At 11 p.m. the explosion occurred in an outside stairwell, with a concrete block wall between it and the machine room.

Seitz and the four members of his staff immediately left the computer center after the warning.

One of the injured was standing in the hall about 30 feet from the outside door and the other two were in the stairwell, unaware that the bomb was behind some cardboard boxes near them, Seitz said.

Victims Treated

The three victims were treated at a hospital for concussion and were released. They were Carol Duster, Victor Harrison and Vernon S. Breit. All were student-employees of the center.

The $3.5-million computer sustained some damage, Seitz said, but continued operating through the explosion. The most damage, he said, was to 300 users' tapes stored in racks along the machine room wall next to the stairwell.

An investigator said he believed it was a pipe bomb.

The center is on the ground floor of the four-story, $1.5 million Summerfield Hall, which also houses the school of business and economics department.

The computation center operates around the clock on research and university business.

Almost daily incidents have occurred on the campus since the Black Student Union called for a strike Monday to enforce its demands that the Board of Regents rehire Gary Jackson, black assistant administrator to the dean of men.

The regents fired Jackson last July when Topeka police told them he helped buy 27 boxes of ammunition the day after Rick Dowdell, a black Lawrence youth, was killed by a city policeman.

Maier Claims
Suit Possible

Milwaukee Mayor Insists City Has
Right to File Action

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee isn't Ethiopia, and can defend itself against an anti-pollution suit started by Illinois Atty. Gen. William Scott, Mayor Henry Maier said Friday.

Maier accused Scott of "grandstanding" and using the "Mussolini technique" of attacking someone else when he has a houseful of internal troubles.

Scott has asked the U.S. Supreme Court for an injunction against Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha, which he claims are polluting Lake Michigan and damaging its Illinois shoreline.

Maier agreed with former Chicago Sanitary District, now a University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee professor, that Scott should clean his own house first.

The Milwaukee mayor, at his weekly news conference, praised the budget hearings being held by Gov. Elect Patrick Lucey.

The hearings, he said, are properly aimed at the state's problems in an attempt to develop the correct problems. Maier said he would testify at one of the hearings.

Nixon Rejects
Idea He Caused
Campus Unrest

President Refuses To Accept Findings
Of Commission

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today rejected the conclusion of his Commission on Campus Unrest that he bears the major responsibility for providing the moral leadership to end divisions in American society.

In a letter to William W. Scranton, chairman of the commission, Nixon said moral authority in a nation as great and diverse as the United States resides in many others besides the President.

"There are thousands upon thousands of individuals—clergy, teachers, public officials, scholars, writers—to whom segments of the nation look for moral, intellectual and political leadership," Nixon said.

The President's lengthy letter was his first official comment on the controversial report of the commission which, when issued Sept. 26, was met with immediate criticism from other administration spokesmen.

A principal commission finding that was strongly opposed by many administration supporters was its conclusion that the first step in preventing future campus violence and creating understanding rests squarely with the President.

"Only the President has the platform and prestige to urge all Americans, at once, to step back from the battle lines into which they are forming," the commission report said.

Hit by Many

Nixon said over the past decade during which disorders have troubled the nation, many leaders outside the government have condemned violence and disruption as instruments of change in a free society.

"High in that category I would place the Vice President of the United States," he said. "History will look favorably, I believe, upon these men and women. It may well look severely upon those others—on and off campus—who for whatever reason refused or failed to speak out forthrightly against the inequities visited against the academic community."

5 Dead, 60 Hurt
In Bar Explosion

Victims of an Explosion and subsequent fire Friday at a New York bar, Ryan's Bar and Grill, located opposite New York's City Hall, wait for assistance.

NEW YORK (AP) — Firemen and police searching through the rubble of a Park Row building leveled by a massive explosion and fire Friday discovered five bodies this morning.

Five persons were reported unaccounted for after the blast and blazing inferno Friday afternoon in which more than 60 persons—many of them customers in a ground-floor tavern in the building—were injured, 11 critically.

Police said the missing persons normally worked in the area but it was not known whether they were there at the time of the explosion.

The blast, touched off by a gas leak, occurred at about 2 p.m. Glass, debris and equipment from the bar, including a heavy cigarette machine, were flung across the street.

Mayor John V. Lindsay, who heard a "thunderous uproar" from his City Hall office, went to the scene, as did Fire Commissioner Robert O. Lowery and other officials.

They found a crowd gathering as patrons, dazed and bloodied, staggered from the tavern, Ryan's Bar and Grill.

Flames shot 30 feet into the air and rescuers had to grope through the building in search of victims as 200 firemen fought the blaze.

The injured lay groaning on the sidewalk waiting for ambulances. One man told reporters: "I was just sitting there in the bar and all of a sudden there was an explosion and the floor collapsed."

"Grabbed Bar" "I grabbed the bar and pulled myself up and kept from falling into the basement."

One man ran from the tavern, his clothes afire. Two policemen beat out the flames with their hands.

Patrons who had been in the bar told of noticing a smell of gas just before the explosion and said the manager and an unidentified employee had gone down to the basement to investigate. The employee was not seen again.

Fire officers said the source of the gas had been found and sealed early in the evening. They did not give details.

Most of the injured suffered burns, bruises, fractures and cuts.

Cambodian Aid
Bill Is Expected

House Conferees
Likely to Agree
To Senate Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — After delays spanning several months, House conferees were expected to agree today to a Senate measure banning use of U.S. combat troops and advisers in Cambodia.

That development, in turn, was likely to enhance chances for swift action on the Nixon administration's request for $255 million in military aid to the war-torn nation.

Ranking members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee indicated after a heated session Friday with Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird that they would not clear the Cambodian money without guarantees such as those in last summer's Cooper-Church amendment.

The way apparently was cleared for House adoption of an amendment prohibiting American ground forces from re-entering Cambodia, when Secretary of State William P. Rogers said Thursday he had no objection to it.

The amendment is contained in a defense appropriation bill for which a formal compromise is being drawn by a conference committee. The Senate approved the amendment which the House rejected.

A separate measure containing $1.035 billion in supplemental foreign aid funds, including the $255 million for Cambodia, was approved by the Senate Appropriations Committee Friday.

U.S. Made Satellite
Is Launched by Italians

FORMOSA BAY, Kenya (AP) — The first American satellite ever launched by scientists from another country went into earth orbit today, opening up millions of miles of uncharted space to X-ray research.

A 40,000-pound rocket named Uhuru—"Freedom" in Swahili—was launched by an Italian crew at 5:54 a.m. EDT. Scientists said the Quito, Ecuador tracking station picked it up 66 minutes later, exactly on schedule, indicating the ship was in orbit.

The rocket was named Uhuru because it was launched on the anniversary of Kenya's independence from Britain.

Gray clouds hung over the launch pad, a modified oil rig in the Indian Ocean off Kenya, as engineers from the University of Rome aerospace center checked out the four-stage rocket and eight American engineers checked out the 315-pound spacecraft.

The Italians launched the satellite by remote control from another platform 500 yards away.

Scientists said the spacecraft is expected to collect more data on X-ray sources in space during its first day of operations than has been collected in the eight years since X-ray astronomy began.

Substance Found to Fight
Rejection in Transplants

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Two scientists say they have developed a method to isolate a substance from human cells that, injected into a transplant patient, may "trick" the body into accepting a donated organ.

Drs. Ralph A. Reisfeld and Michael Pellegrino of Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation said Friday their work could solve the major problem of transplantation — rejection by the body of a foreign organ.

"We have isolated and purified transplantation antigens from human cells in test tubes which could be injected into a recipient so that his body accepts someone else's organ," Reisfeld said in an interview.

Antigen, he explained, is a substance that when introduced into the body stimulates the production of an antibody.

The problem of rejection has been so formidable, he said, that efforts to transplant organs such as the heart have almost stopped after most failed.

"The key factor," he added, "is that the body of the recipient recognizes most tissue transplants as foreign. Then, dog and cat and the cat gave the same antibody system that protects people against infections goes to work and destroys the transplant."

Under the new process, Reisfeld said, "white blood cells would be drawn from a prospective organ donor by growing and in what is believed an impossible mating."

Roy Tutt, 50, insisted that row would be drawn from a prospective organ donor by growing and in what is believed an impossible mating."

Tutt said the dogs look like dogs at the front and cats at the back. The creatures sent animal experts scrambling to their books.

This would desensitize the patient, he said, and "trick" his body into accepting the donated organ.

"So far we've worked only with animals and the results are most encouraging," Reisfeld noted. "But with additional tests and approval by the Food and Drug Administration we will be able to test our process in humans within a year."

Kroger May Sell Stores In Wisconsin

Reports Indicate Firm to Terminate State Operations

Kroger Co., the Cincinnati, Ohio-based food store chain, reportedly plans to terminate its supermarket operations in Wisconsin. There are two Kroger stores in Appleton, one in the Town of Menasha and one in Neenah.

One of the Appleton stores, located in the Northland Shopping Center on Northland Avenue, is a new store opened this year.

Reports indicate the firm is trying to sell the Wisconsin outlets to Wisconsin-based food chains.

Kroger officials aren't discussing what they consider to be rumors, but an executive of one state store said his company had been approached by Kroger officials, who offered to sell some stores.

Kroger officials won't deny nor confirm the possibility.

Kroger has sharply cut back its Midwestern operations in 1970. It recently sold 10 stores in the Minneapolis, Minn., area to Piggly Wiggly and closed its North Lake, Ill., warehouse, which served parts of Wisconsin and Chicago.

Kroger also recently sold 10 Chicago area stores and about 30 others there reportedly are going to be sold. It has closed Milwaukee stores and failed to rebuild one destroyed by fire in Madison.

Kroger has operated in the state for over 40 years. It acquired the Krambo Food Stores, Inc., Milwaukee, in 1955.

Consultants Recommend Change in State Funding

WINNEBAGO — Plans to revise the method of state reimbursement for Pleasant Acres will go to the finance committee for study.

Presently the rates are retrospectively set by the state on costs which are at least 18 months out of date and then the state share (60 per cent) is reimbursed the year after it is spent.

In Winnebago County that means the county is paying operating funds to the tune of $1.5 million a year. Some of the 35 counties in the program have to buy short-term loans to stay solvent until the state's share comes in. Winnebago doesn't.

Donald Zboray, superintendent, said the study had been prepared by a widely known firm of hospital consultants, James A. Hamilton Associates, Minneapolis, at the request of the county hospital association.

$160,000 Due Zboray said that this year would close with the state still owing $160,000 to the county.

The consultant plan ask that costs be based on present expenses, not those of 18 months ago, and that reimbursement be made immediately, or that the cost of the retrospective-delayed reimbursement system be recognized and paid for.

The study has yet to be approved by the county hospital association. When that happens, the state still has no obligation to change its ways. However, it is a talking point.

Zboray says either plan would probably be in the county's best interests, but he would like the finance committee to check that

Consultants Recommend Change in State Funding

WINNEBAGO — Plans to revise the method of state reimbursement for Pleasant Acres will go to the finance committee for study.

Presently the rates are retrospectively set by the state on costs which are at least 18 months out of date and then the state share (60 per cent) is reimbursed the year after it is spent.

In Winnebago County that means the county is paying operating funds to the tune of $1.5 million a year. Some of the 35 counties in the program have to buy short-term loans to stay solvent until the state's share comes in. Winnebago doesn't.

Donald Zboray, superintendent, said the study had been prepared by a widely known firm of hospital consultants, James A. Hamilton Associates, Minneapolis, at the request of the county hospital association.

$160,000 Due Zboray said that this year would close with the state still owing $160,000 to the county.

The consultant plan ask that costs be based on present expenses, not those of 18 months ago, and that reimbursement be made immediately, or that the cost of the retrospective-delayed reimbursement system be recognized and paid for.

The study has yet to be approved by the county hospital association. When that happens, the state still has no obligation to change its ways. However, it is a talking point.

Zboray says either plan would probably be in the county's best interests, but he would like the finance committee to check that

Citizen's Group Picks Fee Study

N EENAH-MENASHA — A user fee study costing $35,000 has tentatively been selected by a subcommittee of the Citizens Sewerage Study Committee.

Neenah Commissioner Thomas Willarson said the group would meet at 4:15 p.m. Monday before making a recommendation to the sewerage commission.

The study was selected from four offered by consulting engineers Consoer & Townsend. Their cost ranged from $12,000 to $35,000.

The one selected will develop rates for all contributors using ad valorem support and also using complete user fees. Willarson said the subcommittee felt the whole financial picture needed looking at.

Rules for federal aid require a user fee system. It can amount to 55 per cent of the total, which is $17.5 million.

Study Areas

The study will:

—Reassess initial flow rates, BOD and suspend solids' loadings based on results of the commission's questionnaire.

—Redesign the proposed plant to accommodate revised loadings.

—Update estimated construction and operating costs for the new plant.

—Recalculate the cost of treatment.

—Review assessed valuation figures for the cities and industries.

—Develop user costs for each industry.

—Develop provisions for ordinances on sewage.

—Determine breakdown of flow between the two cities.

Willarson is eager to stop pollution now. He agrees with the Department of Natural Resources that the Twin Cities can't wait until the new plant is done, about three years after the decision is made to start.

Similar charges against a 15-year-old boy were dismissed by Winnebago County Juvenile Judge James G. Sarres.

Also dismissed were burglary charges against a 13-year-old boy; possession of fermented beverages charges against a 17-year-old girl, and disorderly conduct charges against sisters, 15 and 16-years-old.

A 13-year-old girls was found delinquent and placed on supervision for a year for possession of fermented beverages. A City of Menasha charge of shoplifting was consolidated with the Neenah charge.

Neenah Girl Sentenced For Possessing LSD

NEENAH — A 17-year-old Neenah girl was found delinquent and placed on probation until her 18th birthday for possession of LSD.

Many Mishaps, Few Hurt On Snow-Covered Roads

OSHKOSH — Winnebago police said. County sheriff's police reported Kimpel received a cut on his numerous accidents Thursday head and was taken by a and early Friday due to the icy, passing motorist to Mercy Med-snow roads, but only a few of the accidents involved personal injury.

Four persons received minor injuries about 5:12 p.m. Thursday in a two-car crash on U. S. 41 about a half mile south of State 45.

Police said a car driven by Merle J. Kimpel, 53, 425 N. Linwood Ave., Appleton, was hit from behind by a car driven by Richard M. Urdike, 36, 885 Higgins Ave., Neenah, as the Kimpel car was making a left turn from the highway.

Advised to see doctors for cuts and bruises were Russell Urdike, 6, Peggy Urdike, 15, and another passenger in the Urdike car, Maude Bryan, 76, Ripon.

Kimpel had signaled and started to turn when Urdike passed a semi tractor and hit the rear of the Kimpel car. Second St., Menasha.

The Keene auto hit the Anderson auto in the rear, crossed into the left lane and hit a car driven by Terri L. Blank, 18, 894 the rear of the Kimpel car.

There Are Different Ways of looking at the recent snowfall. Some find it inconvenient. Traffic gets snarled, and all that. Others find it cold to step in, especially without galoshes. Some mourn its potential for creating tragedy on the highways, although man is still the chief culprit there. But almost all find it artistic — peacefully artistic — potential very satisfying. DNR Vows to Keep Land-Buying Policy

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The Department of Natural Resources Friday emphasized its commitment to acquiring land for recreation facilities while such lands are still available and developing them at a later date.

L. P. Voight, secretary of the department, testifying at the Gov.-Elect Patrick J. Lucey's budget hearing on preserving and improving the state's recreational, historical and artistic resources said that the department is requesting a substantial increase in its budget for land acquisition in the next biennium. Alta Ehly of the department's Parks and Recreation Bureau, expanded on the concept pointing out that the legislature had reversed the order of its priorities in the last biennium to support development over acquisition.

An additional 375,000 acres are needed to fill out existing fish, game, park and forestry projects in the state at a current estimated cost of $44 million.

In view of the remaining need, the department has requested $7 million for land acquisition and $7.8 million for development. Ehly stressed the need for the governor and Legislature to maintain the balance between the two programs in approving the budget.

In the 1969 Legislature a request involving $8.4 million for acquisition and $4.8 million for development was reversed with about $4 million provided for acquisition and $9.2 for development. The funds are a portion of the $200 million approved in a state referendum.

to be provided through the sale of bonds.

While Ehly admitted the goal of acquisition first — development much later has changed to an extent, he still believes acquisition should have the priority, but not separated so extensively from the development aspect.

It is difficult, he said, to keep the public out of lands that have been purchased but not yet developed. One Ozaukee County area was overrun with summer visitors although there were no facilities. By the end of the summer, after numerous complaints from residents, the department supported mass arrest of trespassers on the land.

Last year, Ehly said, there were 10 undeveloped parks. With the use of the funds appropriated by the legislature seven of these will be developed in the spring and open for public use next summer.

Lucey Hears Plea for State Arts Council

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Supposedly hardy outdoorsmen were put off by a record 16-inch snowfall here Thursday and early Friday, but Oscar Lueck, who characterized himself facetiously as an "effete artist" made it to pitch for the Wisconsin Arts Council at Gov. Elect Patrick J. Lucey's budget hearing on recreation, history and the arts.

Lueck, executive director of the Wisconsin Arts Council, had a good reason to make the effort, for his livelihood and operation depend entirely on the good will of Lucey. The council he heads and serves as the sole employee is created by executive order, and without a renewal of Gov. Knowles order by Lucey, the council will be defunct.

Lueck told the new governor Wisconsin is one of only four states which do not fund its arts council. The others are in Nevada, North Dakota and Wyoming.

He was not quite accurate, it was pointed out, as the 1969 legislature approved funding to the amount of $200 for the biennium. Lueck was notified too late, however, and could collect only $100 of the amount.

Youth Program

The executive director told the governor-elect that the arts, especially for the young, provide wholesome and creative activities that keep them out of trouble and off the streets. "A kid who's practicing his instrument," he said, "has no time for mischievousness."

Lueck asked the new governor to consider that aspect of the arts and the development of community arts programs, such as the 20 symphonies and 60 community theaters in the state and renew the executive order. He did not ask specifically for funds, being more concerned with the council's existence. He did tell Lucey that with an inconsequential council and no state funds, Wisconsin is losing a chance for federal funds provided on a matching basis.

Other states are invited to participate in programs of foundations and the federal government, he said, while Wisconsin is not even asked.

Local private money has sometimes been raised to match funds, he said, but Wisconsin applications for matching funds apparently are not even considered. Lueck claimed he submitted 28 grant applications to the Department of Health Education and Welfare and received no word of any of them.

In effect what the program needs, he said, is at least hearty moral support and visibility. In contrast to campers and other outdoorsmen who were to appear at the budget hearing Lueck at least provided the visibility to the governor-elect.

Guilty Pleas Are Entered in Burglary Case

One Member of Trio Will Plead At Hearing Monday

Two of three young Appleton men arrested Wednesday night for burglary pleaded guilty to five counts Friday and will be sentenced Dec. 22.

Facing prison terms of ten years on each felony count are Milton Aures, 24, of 821 E. John St., and Stephen VanZummeren, 23, of 1516 W. Lawrence St. They are in the Outagamie County jail without bond while presentence investigations are being made.

A third man, Ronald Kelly, 22, of 303 E. South River St., appeared before County Judge Nick F. Schaefer Friday but his case was laid over to Monday morning so he may consult with a court-appointed attorney.

VanZummeren and Aures each pleaded guilty to burglarizing the Country Aire Club, 2311 W. Spencer St., where $3,600 in cash and checks were taken the early morning hours of Nov. 14.

A county investigator said that VanZummeren acted a lookout while Aures, and the other suspect, Kelly, smashed open the safe there. About $1,900 in cash was later reportedly split three ways in a motel room.

Guilty Plea

VanZummeren also entered a guilty plea to a charge of burglary stemming from a break-in last Feb. 27 at Valley Meat Service, 2310 W. College Ave. Although no money was taken, according to an investigator, damage to equipment amounted to $150.

Aures pleaded guilty to burglarizing at the W. T. Grant store, 800 W. Northland Ave. and Malchow's Car Wash and Service Station, 3235 W. College Ave.

Aures, allegedly accompanied by Kelly, was unsuccessful in cutting open a safe with acetylene cutting tools at W. T. Grant on Nov. 7. Most of what was removed from the store, including three weapons and ammunition, a stereo tape recorder and two men's jackets have been recovered, according to an Appleton detective.

A handful of pennies was taken from the service station, after burglars entered by smashing a door glass.

Steps are under way to effect consolidation of charges against VanZummeren and Aures in Calumet and Winnebago counties. Those charges will be considered at the time of sentencing if the necessary papers are ready, according to the Outagamie County district attorney's office. Additionally, Dist. Atty. James Long has drawn up a complaint charging Aures with burglary of the R. Sabee Co., 1718 W. Eighth St., which will likely be considered on Dec. 22.

Kelly will answer to five burglary counts when he comes into court on Monday.

Snow shovels were the order of the day all over the Fox Cities Friday.

DRUMS Files 73-Point Complaint

Injunction Delays Vote on Menominee Trust

Post-Crescent News Service

SHAWANO — About 100 members of DRUMS and their supporters burst into noisy applause Friday afternoon when Circuit Judge James Martineau issued a restraining order enjoining Menominee Enterprises Inc. (MEI) from conducting any elections at its annual meeting scheduled today at Neopit.

The order came after Martineau heard arguments from attorneys for both sides of what has become a hotly contested issue — control of the Indian-owned corporation.

DRUMS Request

DRUMS members had asked for the injunction in a 73-point complaint.

The injunction will have far-reaching effects on the affairs of the Menominee people. Both DRUMS and a counter organization, Menominees for Progress, have been collecting proxies in preparation for the anticipated battle today, because of the importance of one of the questions to be decided.

When the corporation was established in 1961, upon termination of federal supervision of the former Menominee Indian Reservation, a body known as the Menominee Common Stock and Voting Trust also was created. The Voting Trust holds all 327,000 shares of MEI stocks, and owners of these shares are issued voting certificates.

The Voting Trust actually casts ballots for election of its own members and for directors of the board of Menominee Enterprises. Holders of voting certificates, when they vote, are directing the Trust in the course they wish it to follow.

First Voting

Under the rules of incorporation, shareholders have the option, once every 10 years, to vote for elimination or continuance of the Voting Trust.

Since the first 10-year period is up in May, 1971, the meeting today would have been the shareholders' first opportunity to take that vote.

DRUMS wants the Voting

Trust eliminated, claiming that this would give individual stockholders a greater voice in the operation of their company. Members of Menominees for Progress and others want the Trust continued, with the conviction that it is a stabilizing influence on the shareholders.

Complaint Pressed

In presenting the complaint and request for injunction, Joseph Preloznik, Judicare attorney representing DRUMS, listed 73 points of contention and asked for release on six counts:

—That the court determine whether or not Voting Trust certificates of deceased persons whose estates are still in probate may be counted as part of the total potential vote.

—That the court determine who should conduct the election on whether or not the Voting Trust should continue, and who should pay for the election.

—That the court decide whether shareholders between 18 and 20 years of age, whose stock is held in trust by the assistance trust, First Wisconsin Trust Co. of Milwaukee, should be allowed to vote their shares individually.

Vital Issue

—That the court decide what notice should be given to shareholders concerning annual meetings.

—That the court decide whether or not the Voting Trust certificates of beneficiaries not receiving notice should be considered as part of the total eligible vote.

—That the court order a neutral third party, such as a certified public accounting firm, to conduct the election.

Concern Expressed

Martineau said he felt no real harm would come to Enterprises by postponement of the election, but expressed concern about the possible lifting of a restraint on sale of corporation shares as a result of his decision.

Gilbert Church, attorney for Enterprises, a defendant in the action, had presented an affidavit from George Kenote warning that shares in the corporation probably would go on the open market soon after Dec. 31 if the Voting Trust is not continued. Kenote is chairman of the Voting Trust.

Grand Chute Board Okays Tax Rate Increase of $1.50

A gross tax rate increase of $1.50 per $1,000 assessed valuation was approved for Town of Grand Chute residents Friday by the town board.

Three different rates prevail in the town. For residents living in the portion of the town in the Hortonville School District, the gross rate will be $24.94. Residents in the Appleton School District will pay $24, and for residents in the Appleton district who also are in the Butte des Morts Utility District the rate will be $26.

A state sales tax credit of 85 cents per $1,000 assessed valuation is applied against each of the tax rates. For the current year, the sales tax credit was 58 cents per $1,000 assessed valuation.

The tax rate is to support a levy of $1,781,021 which covers state, county, school district, vocational school and state trust fund loan charges in the two school districts.

There is no tax for town operations and the town budget is set at the annual meeting in April.

The breakdown of costs: State taxes, $17,062; county taxes, $411,468; Appleton school taxes, $1,450,177; Hortonville School taxes, $21,071; vocational school taxes, $80,708; and trust fund loans for the districts, $333.

The total increase is $200,915. Town Clerk Leslie Woldt said the town took $76,220 from its general fund to offset the county tax rate. This, he said, amounted to 96 cents on the tax rate.

A breakdown of the tax rate shows that all residents in the town will pay $4.22 per $1,000 assessed valuation of county taxes, a 48-cent increase; 21-cents for state taxes, unchanged; $18.52 in the Appleton school district, up $1; $19.44 in the Hortonville School District, up $1.44; $1.03 vocational school tax in the Appleton district, up 3-cents; $1.05 vocational tax in the Hortonville district, unchanged; 2-cents trust fund in the Appleton district, down 1-cent, and 2-cents trust fund in the Hortonville district, down 12-cents.

Residents of the Butte des Morts Utility district, including those areas just brought into the district, pay an additional $2 per $1,000 assessed valuation charge.

Total sales tax rebate, for both real and personal property, was $57,896. Last year the rebate was $38,076.

Woldt said the town anticipates total revenues of $122,945 between now and April 1. It is from those revenues the town will take the $76,220 to off-set part of the county tax, Woldt said.

The town's assessed valuation is $79,396,826, of which $1,084,291 is in the Hortonville School District. The rest is in the Appleton District. The town's assessment ratio is 93 per cent.

Crash Injuries Are Fatal to Kaukauna Girl

KAUKAUNA — A 16-year-old route 3 girl died early today at St. Vincent Hospital in Green Bay from injuries received Thursday afternoon in a one-car accident in Brown County.

Mary C. VanderLoop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linus VanderLoop, died at the hospital shortly before 3:30 a.m. She had sustained head, back and leg injuries. She was a junior at Kaukauna High School.

According to Brown County officers, Miss VanderLoop was alone in her car when it left County Trunk D, three miles south of Wrightstown, struck a utility pole and rolled over. The cause of the accident was not determined, police said.

Miss VanderLoop's death raises Brown County's 1970 road death toll to 26.

Besides her parents, Miss VanderLoop is survived by two brothers and two sisters and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Richard VanderLoop, route 3.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday at St. Francis Catholic Church, Holmdel, with the Rev. Edward Kilsdonk officiating. Burial will be in the parish cemetery. Friends may call at the Greenwood Funeral Home after 2 p.m. Sunday. A prayer service is set for 8 p.m. Sunday.

Bookseller Plans To Appeal Guilty Verdict

The Outagamie County district attorney's office has received a notice of appeal from the Milwaukee attorneys of Errol J. Simpson, 33, route 3, Shawano, saying that they intend to appeal a jury's guilty verdict to the State Supreme Court.

Simpson was sentenced to three years in the state prison at Waupun for selling three obscene publications to Appleton police authorities in April and July.

The sentence was imposed on Dec. 1 by Circuit Court Judge Andrew W. Parnell after a jury returned a guilty verdict. The jury reached its verdict on a day's testimony in 30 minutes.

Simpson is the former operator of Appleton Book Store on W. Wisconsin Ave.

University Regents Meet

Calendars, Programs, Fees Approved

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The State Universities Board of Regents Friday approved two optional calendars for the 1971-1972 school year, authorized 24 summer credit programs abroad and set summer session fees for the 1971 session.

In a meeting shortened by bad weather, the regents approved the two calendars with permission for each state university president to select the calendar his campus favors.

Summer overseas programs ranging from literary tours of England to a study of hotels and restaurants abroad will be sponsored by several of the state university campuses.

Study Programs

Ten such programs planned by Oshkosh State University include a four-week study of education in the Soviet Union; a tour of the French chateaus; three studies of literary England, two of them also including trips into Scotland and Wales; a work-study tour of Israel; a study of Education in Latin America; a study of geography of Norway and Sweden and a geology summer field camp.

LaCrosse State University will have a three-week field geography program and an eight-week summer study program in Japan.

Summer session fees were established that involve a slight reduction for state residents and a considerable reduction in fees for out-of-state students.

Fees will be computed on the basis of credits taken. The in-state fees will be $13 per credit for undergraduates and $20 for graduates.

The approved fee schedule involves a $1 per credit reduction in costs for both graduates and undergraduates. But, there will be no specific full-time charge as in the 1970 summer session.

Out-of-state fees were reduced from $53 to $20 per credit for undergraduates and from $87 to $30 per credit for graduate students.

The regents approved amendments to the administrative code to provide procedures for faculty disciplinary and termination hearings. The amendments will provide that faculty members cited for disciplinary action may be heard by either a standing university committee on termination or a trained hearing agent. The changes were endorsed by the Association of Wisconsin State University Faculties that claims about half the faculties in its membership.

By resolution, the regents endorsed the idea that houses should be provided for state university presidents. A study of the subject will be initiated to determine whether such facilities can be built with state funds or must be provided by donation.

Beer Sale
The regents approved the sale of beer on the Stevens Point University campus, the first campus to receive its permission. The governing board in November approved the concept of beer sales on campus, but required each campus president to submit a request that outlines procedures governing the sales and certifies that permission will not be offensive to the community in which the campus is located.

A request by President Roger Guiles of Oshkosh was received too late to permit its consideration. It will be reviewed at the January meeting scheduled Jan. 22 at La Crosse.

President Lee S. Dreyfus of the Stevens Point campus said that beer sales would begin as soon as physically possible, probably immediately after Christmas vacation.

A request of $1,069,300 for security measures on the state university campuses was approved by the regents and will be submitted to the Board of Government Operations next week. The request for phase I funds would provide $102,000 for lighting improvements, personnel and improved security measures on the La Crosse campus and $138,100 for similar provisions on the Oshkosh campus.

After a Christmas Shopping tour Thursday with members of the Appleton Jaycees, disadvantaged children were helped in wrapping the gifts they had purchased by members of the Jaycettes at a wrapping session at St. Mary School. Typical of the activity is this picture of Mrs. Richard Offenbecher helping one of the youngsters with her gift wrapping problems.

Shibata Takes Feather Title From Saldivar

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP)—Jan-an has two, not just one, world champion featherweight boxers today.

And Mexico, in the space of nine days, was lacking two of its world champions.

What will the land of the rising sun do with two 126-pound kings? Reasonably, you'd expect they would fight and clear up the situation.

It's not quite that uncomplicated, however.

Kuniaki Shibata of Tokyo deliriously Vicente Saldivar of Mexico City on a 13-round technical knockout Friday night to win recognition by the World Boxing Council as its title-holder. But Japan's Shozo Saijyo also has the blessing of the World Boxing Association as its champion.

Saldivar was the second Mexican champion to go down in eight days. Jose Napoles was stopped on an eye cut in the fourth round and lost the world welterweight title to Billy Backus last week in Syracuse, N.Y.

Ray Hamann Attends UW Cage Reunion

MADISON (AP)—Most members of the University of Wisconsin's 1935 Big Ten championship basketball team will be in Madison today for a get-together.

They will be guests at the Wisconsin-Loyola of the South basketball game.

The 1935 team also marked the head coaching debut of Harold (Bud) Foster, who remained at the helm for 25 years. The 1935 team had a 9-3 conference record and a 15-5 season mark.

Players expected to return for the reunion include Charles Jones, Ed Stege, Fritz Wegner, Chub Poser, Nick De Mark, Pete Preboski, Bill Garrett, Ray Hamann (Kimberly Superintendent of Schools) and Roger Reinhart.

Oshkosh Titans Rout Superior

OSHKOSH (AP)—Oshkosh won its first State University Conference basketball game of the season Friday night, slaughtering still winless Superior 100-54.

Sophomore Rockey Jiroch and junior Tyree Vance each pumped in 22 points for Oshkosh, 1-2 in the loop. High for Superior, 0-2, was Alan Olson with 12.

Wisniewski Sets Pace

Menasha Posts 73-65 Win Over OHS

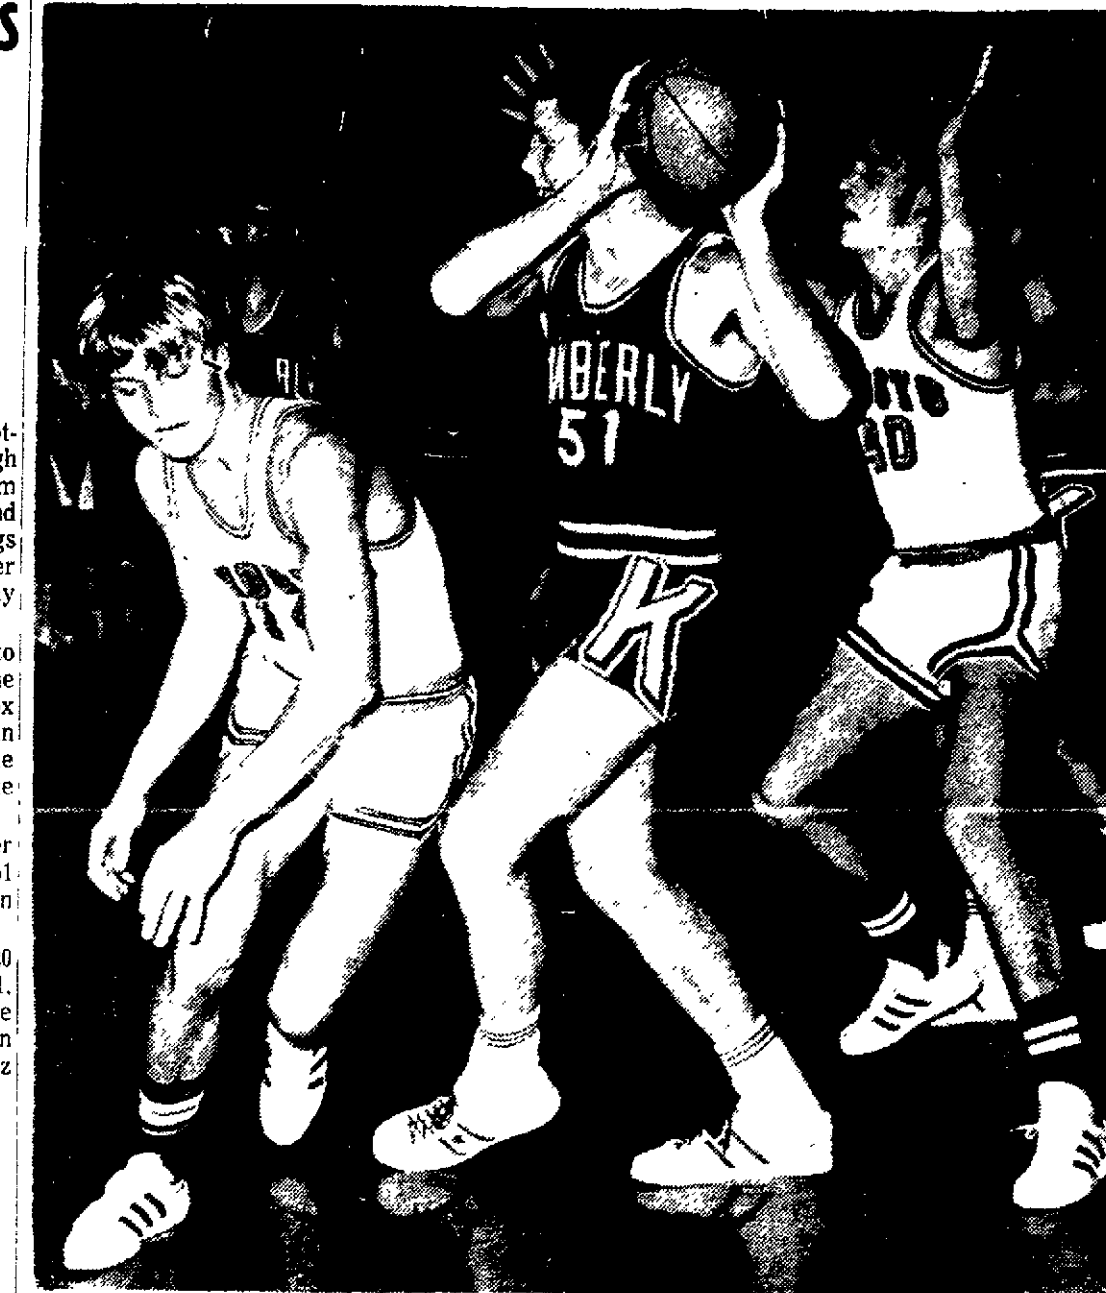

BY ROD GNERLICH Post-Crescent Staff Writer

OSHKOSH — Menasha High School stopped a last-ditch Oshkosh rally Friday night and won, 73-65, in a ragged basketball game marred by 45 fouls.

The Bluejays used a 27-point second quarter as the springboard to get a lead they never again lost. They had the Indians on the ropes through the entire second half but couldn't deliver the knock-out punch until a minute was left in the game. Paul Wisniewski led the Jays, with 16 points, while Tom Bohmke and Mark Koerner kicked in 14 and 10 points, respectively.

OHS' Craig Whitney led all scorers with 26 points. It was pure hustle on rebounds and break-aways that got Whitney his high total. Dave Mathe kicked in 13 points.

Martin Luther's Late Flurry Downs FVL

GRENDALE — Martin Luther's basketball team tallied the last eight points of the game to deal Fox Valley Lutheran a 59-54 Midwest Prep Conference basketball setback here Friday night.

The result gave the winners with their first league triumph after two straight losses, while the Foxes were taking their third consecutive MPC defeat.

Bill Dahl hit on a field goal with a minute to play to bring Martin Luther to within 54-53. Then at the 44-second mark, Dave Mock canned two free throws to put his team ahead for good.

With 10 seconds remaining, Dahl scored again to make it 57-54, and then Mock stole the FLV in-bounds pass for a layup two seconds later to account for the final ML points.

Spoils Comeback
The late rally spoiled a gallant comeback for FVL, now 2-4 overall. The Foxes got off to a bad start, trailing, 20-8, after the first period.

The Appleton visitors were still in arrears, 36-22, at the half, but then mounted an 18-9 advantage in the third stanza to fight back into the game.

Mock led the victors with 20 points, and Schneider and Dahl hit 17 and 14, respectively. Dennis Kasten's 17 markers paced FVL, and Eric Troge made 11 and Jeff Grow 10.

Martin Luther had fewer shots but at a better percentage than FVL. The winners connected on 25 of 52 shots, for 48 percent, and the losers netted 23 of 74 for 31 per cent.

FVL had a 47-29 edge on the boards.

Terrors Defeat Patriots; Ghosts Halt Papermakers

Borchardt And Franzke Lead Win

BY ED VAN BERKEL Post-Crescent Staff Writer

KAUKAUNA — Coming from behind in the final two minutes of play the Galloping Ghosts knocked Kimberly from the ranks of the Fox Valley Association undefeated with a 74-69 win.

Al Borchardt, who was kept pretty well in check for the first half of the game, broke loose with 11 points in the final period to set the spark for the Ghosts. He fouled out with eight seconds remaining in the game, but not before providing his mates with a 4-point edge on a 3-point play about 21 seconds earlier.

Borchardt, who was limited to a lone basket and three free throws in the first half, finished with 22 while his running mate, Leon Franzke, finished with 26, many of them long range swishers. Karl Mueller added 15.

Play started slowly with Don Uelman canning a free throw for the Papermakers 27 seconds into the game and this was matched by Borchardt eight seconds later. Mueller put Kaukauna into a 5-1 lead with two quick baskets from the corner, but a 3-point play and another basket, all by Uelman moved Kimberly in front 7-6. Three baskets by Franzke and two by Mueller enabled Kaukauna to take a 18-15 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Hits 12 of 15

Kimberly got hot in the second period, registering 12 goals in 15 attempts as the Papermakers stormed to a 40-31 halftime lead. Free throws kept the Ghosts within striking distance in the period.

Coach Ken Vander Velden's charges came out shooting in the third period and, aided by strong rebounding were able to chip away at the Kimberly lead. Franzke and Borchardt led the charge, making 12 of the 17 points in the quarter as the team hit on seven of 14 from the floor.

Only 7 Attempts

Kimberly, meanwhile, tried only seven shots in the third period, three of which found the range. The Papermakers managed only one basket and two free throws in the first four minutes of play in the third period as Kaukauna outscored them, 17-11, to pull to 51-48 as they rested for the final quarter.

Uelman connected on a basket and four free throws in the first minute of play to boost Kimberly to a 57-50 advantage, but then the Ghosts began their comeback. Franzke and Borchardt rang up long-range buckets to cut the margin to 57-54 with less than two minutes gone in the frame. A basket by Jim Rooyackers was offset by the F-B duo again scoring and a free throw by Franzke pulled the Ghosts to within two with 4:26 left to play. Mueller registered two free throws to tie the game a 61-61, but Tom Aerts scored on a lay-up to boost Kimberly into the lead. Borchardt hit a

Dodgers Get Indians' Sims For 2 Hurlers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The banjo - hitting Los Angeles Dodgers have added new muscle to their attack for their 1971 run at the National League pennant.

Duke Sims, a 23-year-old catcher-first baseman-outfielder, was acquired Friday from the Cleveland Indians in a trade for Dodger pitchers Alan Foster and Ray Lamb.

Sims, a left-handed hitter, slugged 23 home runs for Cleveland last season while disenchanted with the Indians' management. He also hit .264, his major league high over seven years.

Shiocton Bows Little Chute Cagers Roll to 92-59 Win

BY DAN VANDERPAS Post-Crescent Staff Writer

LITTLE CHUTE — The Little Chute Mustangs built up a comfortable, 17-3 first-quarter lead as they coasted to a 92-59 victory over the Shiocton Chiefs in Central Wisconsin Conference action here Friday night.

With the win, the Mustangs boosted their conference record to 2-1, while the Chiefs slipped to 1-3 in league play.

The Chuters scored the first eight points of the game before Terry Felner found the range for the Chiefs with 3:20 remaining. Shiocton could not successfully combat the full court press applied by Little Chute, as the aggressive Scott Bevers picked up two consecutive loose basketballs and turned them into a pair of Mustang buckets.

The accurate shooting of Steve Mollen and Dick Hackel enabled the Chuters to increase their lead to 35-15 at intermission. Hackel's powerful board strength combined with the Mustang press prevented Shiocton from getting within 19 points of the hosts.

Nets 18 Points

Chiefs' forward Dick Clausen put on a powerful shooting display in the third quarter as he sank eight baskets and two free throws for 18 of the 25 Shiocton points. Clausen's efforts proved to be too much for NEENAH — Neenah's Rockets were a picture of accuracy and consistency in pummeling Marinette, 87-35, in a non-conference game here Friday night.

The triumph, the fifth in a row this fall, was the 50th for Neenah teams under the direction of Coach Ron Einersson. It has taken him only two and a fraction seasons to reach the half century mark. This year's margins of victory now range from 24 to 52 points.

Einersson's forces never shot better than they did Friday, sinking 60 per cent from the floor on 36 baskets in 60 attempts.

Area Democrats May Rise in Power, Rank

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — The few Democratic representatives to the Wisconsin assembly from the Fox River Valley district, which remained largely Republican despite the recent Democratic victories, will probably rise in rank and power when the new legislature convenes.

Rep. Cletus VanderPerren of the rural Brown county district, a seven-term veteran, is likely to land the most important of the assignments not yet decided upon, according to informed state capital sources.

The reports indicate that he will have a good chance to land a desirable seat on the state building commission. This commission acts as the agent of the legislature in distributing millions of dollars of state building funds during each biennium. VanderPerren will probably keep his seat on the assembly agricultural committee where he will be a ranking member.

The building commission seat would give VanderPerren an

Open Attitude Helps Destroy Odd Notions

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband recently had the vasectomy operation. We are both happy about it. It was done in the doctor's office and took less than 25 minutes. My husband has decided that whenever birth control is discussed, he will announce that he has had the operation. He believes an attitude of openness might help to destroy some of the peculiar notions people have about male sterilization.

One of your readers said it takes a real man to have a vasectomy rather than put his wife through a much bigger operation to prevent pregnancy. I agree. But don't believe it takes an even bigger man to admit that he has had the operation? Comment, please. — St. Louis

DEAR ST.: Yes, I agree, but such an announcement would be inappropriate for just any old get-together. The chief guidelines are taste and judgment.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband and I have been married for more than two years. This marriage was a big mistake. (Another case of a couple of idiots who were too young, stubborn as mules and wouldn't listen to anybody.) We decided to split before we brought more children into the world. We already have a little boy who is nervous and high-strung because he has been subjected to so much fighting and screaming.

I had a telephone call from my mother-in-law yesterday. She wants everything back that she ever gave me — including the baby's crib. When I told her the baby is still sleeping in it, she said, "That's your problem."

I think my husband should step in and tell his mother off but he refuses to do it. Should

Landers

I keep the crib or return it? — Troubles, Inc.
Dear Inc.: Return it. She will then have no excuse to bug you and you can put Mrs. Hugelheart out of your life for good.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our 12-year-old son is selling his homework and my husband thinks it is just terrific. He keeps saying, "That kid will make it big one of these days."

Albert has fixed prices (from what I gather when he talks on the telephone.) He gets a dime for an arithmetic assignment and 25 cents for a book review. The boy is doing a very good business. He bragged at dinner tonight that he has saved up $21.

I think this is disgraceful but whenever I open my mouth I am shouted down. My husband insists that Albert has ingenuity, is smart and is making his brains pay off. If I am wrong, please tell me. If my husband is wrong, please tell him. I'm beginning to doubt my own sanity. — Chicago Mother

Dear Mother: You are not wrong and I hope you'll keep talking.

In this age of tax-chiselers, padded expense accounts and political pay-offs, it's a small wonder a kid would take to selling his homework. Someone should explain to the boy that it is admirable to help friends with their homework by showing them how to do it.

But a person who sells "help" is supporting dishonesty in them and behaving dishonestly himself.

What awaits you on the other side of the marriage veil? How can you be sure your marriage will work? Read Ann Landers' booklet "Marriage — What to Expect." Send your request to Ann Landers in care of your newspaper enclosing 50 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. (Copyright 1970)

The bidding was the same at both tables. South opened with a weak two bid and North jumped directly to game. South's bid described a hand with a good six-card suit capable of producing about six tricks with spades as trumps. North's jump to game was based on the hope that his hand would provide the four additional tricks required for game.

In one room, the defense started with three rounds of hearts, East playing high-low to encourage, South ruffing the third round. Declarer extracted three rounds of trumps ending in his hand. A low diamond was led to dummy and the queen finessed. East won the king, and

UWGB Center To Get Revised Class Periods

Students at the Fox Valley Campus, UWGB, will have longer class periods but shorter semesters when the new seven-year calendar goes into effect next September.

The semesters will be reduced one week, according to the new schedule approved by the UW Board of Regents. To provide for this change, class periods will be extended from 50 to 55 minutes.

Following the established four-one-four program, two 14-week semesters and a four-week January special studies period make up the academic year.

The first semester will begin the day after Labor Day and will end before Christmas. Classes for the second semester will begin early in February and will end before Memorial Day.

The new calendar provides for several changes in vacation periods. A one-week recess is scheduled following the January study term. This break will be used for grading, counseling and registration.

Young Hobby Club Tissue Boxes, Golf Balls Create Indoor Contest

BY CAPPY DICK

When the weather becomes so bad it is wise to have something prepared to do for floor. The idea of the game is to see which player can be first to force his tissue box to slide across that line, propelling it only by rolling his golf ball at it.

The players start at the same time. Each rolls his golf ball at his tissue box, then rushes forward to retrieve it and roll it again, repeating the process until he is out of the race or has propelled his box across the finish as the winner.

The thing that makes this game so challenging is the rule that a player may not allow his ball to enter the opening of the box. If this happens, the player must drop out of the race.

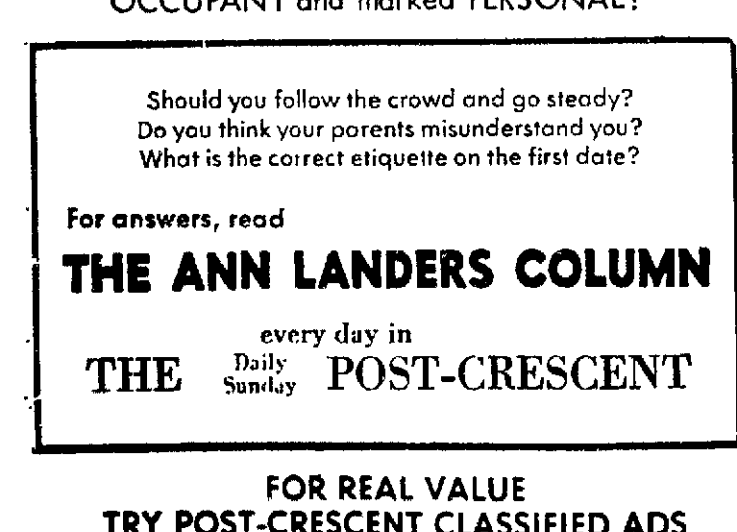

The finish line can be established by means of a piece of string held in place on the floor with two books, one serving as a weight at each end as in the illustration above.

Ali-Bonavena Fight Shown In Entirety

BY TV SCOUT

4:5:30 Channels 11-9 — Wide World of Sports brings you the Oscar Bonavena-Muhammad Ali heavyweight battle from Madison Square Garden. The fight took place Monday night, with Ali winning by a TKO in the 15th round, but ABC figures you'd like to see all the action. Howard Cosell does the commentary.

6-8 Channel 5 — Visually, Hans Brinker, which is being repeated, is one of the prettiest specials you have ever seen. It's set in Holland in the early to mid-19th Century and the snow scenes, the vistas with windmills and the skating scenes all have the look of paintings come to life. The story is a leisurely tale of Hans and his sister, Gretel (played by delightful Roberta Tovey), their mother (Eleanor Parker) and their father (John Gargson. Robin Askwith gives a winning performance as Hans.

6:30-7:30 Channels 2-7 — Mission: Impossible uses its favorite gimmick: driving a wedge between two friends in order to break up (tonight) the business of a heroin manufacturer.

7:30-8 Channels 2-7 — Ernie is working on a science project on My Three Sons, involving his powers of suggestion. He convinces little Dottie that he has turned her pet doll, Myrtle, into a book and he convinces Charlie, suffering from a strained toe after kicking the oven, that he is growing taller.

8:30 Channels 2-7 — Arnie has a Christmas show, the first series to nod to the season. The story makes a good point about the commercialism of Christmas as Arnie makes out his Christmas gift list: cookies for everyone, including the boss. Then he begins to worry, especially when the other executives agree to spend not less than $100 and not more than $150 for gifts for Majors, and Arnie tries to get in the spirit of giving because you have to, not because you want to.

8:30-9 Channels 2-7 — Wes Stern plays a new young cameraman on The Mary Tyler Moore Show, the kind who is sent to cover a fire and gets a symbolic picture of ants crawling on a brick instead of the blaze. Mary decides to be nice to this kid, a mere 23, she says, and he mistakes her niceness for dishonorable intentions.

8:30-9 Channels 11-9 — The trouble with The Most Deadly Game is that all the characters are so despicable you don't really care who is trying to kill whom or why. The victim-to-be Pantomimist Claude Kipnis will present a lecture demonstration of the art of a mime Sunday night at St. Norbert College. A student of Marcel Marceau. Kipnis has gained recognition in his own right. His program is at 8 p.m. in Pennings Hall of Fine Arts on the DePere college campus.

Glad You Asked That

BY HY GARDNER

Q: Didn't otime sex symbol Hedy Lamarr jump the gun on movie nude shots? — Burtram L., Tucson, Ariz.

A: She did. Though it wasn't a shot heard round the world till years later. Hedy's reputation was marred by trickery. In filming "Ecstasy" in Prague 34 years ago, the director kept a promise that the cameras would grind 50 yards away to catch her romping naked in a forest and splashing in a stream. What he neglected to mention was that telescopic lenses would be used! Her then husband, Fritz Mandl, was so incensed that he tried to buy up every print. Even offered to pay any price to destroy the negative. Time proved that wasn't necessary. According to Hedy, it was destroyed when the Russians invaded Budapest.

Q: Is it true Anthony Quinn is apparently Jeff Bridges (Lloyd's youngest), who plays a young man from the hills of Tennessee who is on the verge of becoming THE BIG rock star. His favorite groupie is killed by his rigged guitar, and George Maharis is assigned to be his bodyguard.

9-10 Channels 2-7 — Mannix is intriguing to watch to a point, then the script strains credibility to the breaking point. Brenda Scott plays a wealthy young lady who has visions in which she sees Mannix in danger. When her visions start happening, he worries and investigates and finds, as usual, that things are not what they seem.

led a sheltered life as a youngster? — Paula Glenner, Dallas.

A: On the contrary. By the time he was 21, Quinn had preached for Aimee Semple MacPherson, boxed with Primo Carnera, sang for Chaliapin, and worked in an act with Mae West. He has great respect for the teachings of his father. One day observing his son was experimenting with liquor, papa sat with him and insisted he match him drink for drink. "I got deathly drunk," Tony wryly recalls, "and the only comment my father made was, 'Now I hope you've learned your lesson.' I was 9 years old at the time."

Q: How does Sophia Loren, at her age, manage to retain her flawless beauty, both in face and figure? — Mrs. T.C. Farquhar, Glendale, Cal.

A: It comes naturally. She doesn't diet, eats pasta with gusto even, devours double desserts. Uses cosmetics and creams sparingly, preferring a lotion and a dab of face powder she carries in a compact. Uses milk as a skin detergent. She's now a perfect 36 — her age, that is.

Q: I've always been curious. What is Maurice Chevalier's religion? — Rosemary K., Buffalo.

A: "My official religion," says Chevalier, "is Mama, Dieu, and the public. It's an all-inclusive faith, and now that I'm nearing the end I pray to keep it as pure and simple as that."

Q: In trying to teach my children the value of a dollar, I point out that as a boy their idol, Elvis Presley, worked very hard for his earnings. What jobs did he have before he became a famous singer? — Ramona Perez, Hialeah, Fla.

A: Elvis didn't let any grass grow under his feet. At age 16 he mowed lawns at $1 per lawn and then ushered in a Memphis movie theater for $14 a week. Living with his parents in a public housing project, at Christmas he stood in line with other needy children to pick up his gifts at parties. Presley purchased his first guitar with the $10 he earned selling a pint of his blood to the Baptist Hospital. At 19 he became a truck driver for $35 a week.

Q: The world famous stamp collection of the late Cardinal Spellman — whatever happened to it? And what rare stamps did it contain? — Graham W. Croze, Cincinnati.

A: It's on display in the Cardinal Spellman Philatelic Museum at Regis College in Weston, Mass. The exhibit includes: the Dwight D. Eisenhower collection (a gift from the late President), the first air mail cover from Outer Space, a 1922 inverted Madonna stamp of Hungary, and an 1843 "double Geneva" error of Switzerland, as well as rare specimens from almost every civilized country.
